TOOLWORX TO SPEAK AT AUTO-TECH 2003

BRIGHTON, Mich., <March 25, 2003 >-- ToolWorx Information Products, Inc. ("ToolWorx"), of Brighton, Michigan announces that Ed Weber, VP Sales and Marketing, has again been selected to speak at the AUTO-TECH Conference for the third consecutive year. This year's conference will take place on August 26-28, 2003 at Cobo Conference Center. He will lead a session entitled "Lean and Mean with Auto ID – The Lean Supply Chain" to be presented on Wednesday, August 27, at 2:30 P.M.. Mr. Weber's co-presenter is Mike Bohanon, President of dpbs, ltd., an independent consulting firm specializing in lean manufacturing implementations.

AUTO-TECH is a conference and exhibition sponsored by Automotive Industry and Action Group ("AIAG"), headquartered in Southfield Michigan, that showcases the work of AIAG member volunteers in the development of new technologies and the standards that govern their usage. ToolWorx will also be exhibiting their data collection systems at AUTO-TECH.

About ToolWorx

Founded in 1997, ToolWorx Information Products, Inc. is a systems integrator specializing in automated data collection applications. Our product suite gives companies the ability to accurately collect information from the shop floor, warehouse or out in the field using barcodes, radio frequency identification (RFID) tags, or programmable logic controllers (PLC). The collected information is integrated real-time with a customer's internal enterprise business systems. We take pride in our ability to customize and install a system in less than 30 days.
